

I hope everyone had a restful and productive Spring break. Things are back to business here at Naomi. Teachers and students are squeezing in every last minute of instructional time before the CRCT.

The art show will be tomorrow from 6-8, and the world famous Naomi Chorus will be performing as well.

Spring pictures are Wednesday April 9th, and Kindergarten registration will take place Thursday April 10th.

The plans for our classroom additions have been approved by the state and are currently up for bid, also projectors and SMARTboards have been installed in all of the existing classrooms.

The CRCT will be given April 14-18 it is crucial that everyone be present and ready go during that week.

Have a great day.
